Ron and Angela's Bonfire

Saturday 1 July saw a coming together of 27 intrepid pyro appreciatas (that's a new word – we're not maniacs) at Ron and Angela's for a bonfire night and shared casseroles. Oh in addition to the 27 humans there were around 9 furry four legged friends. Faeces to the fore!

The weather was great – fine but cold – so our hosts had three fires:

- a small aperitif fire for starters before the main event,
- a huge bonfire with the two years of wood for the main event, and
- a cozy fire so the older ones could be warm both front and back.

The night got off to its usual energetic start with seven caravans and campers setting up in the paddock near the fire (well as far away as we could cause there was lots of wood). Some of us even read the email instructions and drove past looking for the left hand gate, which we were told to enter by if we were camping. One of us (not to do Phil in even drove past twice). We soon found out that the left hand gate is on the property. That's the last time I'm going to read instructions!!

Ahh, the left hand gate is Ron's new pride and joy. Its now electric and Ron wandered around with the controller in his pocket letting everybody in with flair. Pity that Angela had to manually operate it when she let people in.

Anyway we soon had camps set up, were organizing our dinners, consuming our first drinks and having plenty of banter with the main topic being the locations of the gates. As it got dark Ron lit the main fire with a little help from some fuel and soon we had a huge fire going. Not to be left out Ray and Chris brought out several boxes of business papers that we all helped throw on the fire. Hope the tax man has finished with that lot.

Maureen made her usual pea and ham soup which was excellent and enjoyed by all. It was then down to casseroles and desserts. The food was terrific and several of us had too much to eat.

After a terrific evening we adjourned to bed looking forward to the Julimar day run the next morning, but that is another story.

Everybody really appreciated the night and a huge vote of thanks to Ron and Angela for hosting us in style.

Julimar Day Run 1st July

The day run was coincided with Ang and Ron's bonfire night.

The run was well attended with 6 vehicles from the bonfire night and 4 more up just for the day trip including two visitors.

Graham arrived with his tablet and a track he had done some time ago, so with that in hand we left Ron & Ange's at 10.00 led by Jude & Phil, we made our way towards Julimar State Forest.

We turned left onto Hearne Rd and let our tyres down then proceeded up the first climb which was not too difficult and continued through the bush for around 5kms. We took a track to the right and after following this track for about 2kms we came to the top a fairly steep decent with two options, the left was steep and heavily rutted and the track to the right steep but passable for all our vehicles, so the right hand track it was.

There were many challenging sections over the next 5 or 6 kms which went down to near the bottom of the gully and back up to the top again in a loop, we encountered both descents and climbs with everyone enjoying the four-wheel driving as low range was needed on many occasions.

One of our visitors needed a bit of a hand and encouragement from Chris to extricate himself from a tricky part of the track as his Fortuner was rocking on two corners which unnerved him a bit. There were quite a few occasions where a look over the edge to pick a line was needed before proceeding.

We all managed to get back to the top unscathed, bar Steve who managed to move his bull bar a couple of inches to one side which was a feat in itself when you don't run into anything.

We had been on the track for about 3 hours, so the call for lunch was welcomed.

We parked up on the side of the track and had a bite and there was much chatter about where we had just been.

Once back on Hearne road we went in search of a muddy area which Graham knew of, but once there none were keen to try it out.

By now we all decided it was time to turn around and head for home, some back to pick up vans from Ron & Ange's and the rest back to Perth.

It was a great day out with sunny skies and we were lucky to be out there when the tracks were dry, as the rains came down the next day and the tracks would have turned to mud and made for a very challenging day.

Looking forward to having another trip up there in the future.

BOATING ■ CAMPING ■ FISHING

Hillside Christmas in July

The paddock had many caravans all set up again. The weather was certainly a little kinder this year, the camp fire was wonderful and kept us all warm. Thank you to all who helped burn the wood, and clear more bush. It is always appreciated. The huge burn piles are gone thank you “pyromaniacs, for your help”

People arrived from the Thursday and left the following Thursday, wonderful having time to catch up with so many of you. Happy hour each evening was amazing as usual sitting by the fire.

The dogs had a marvellous time together, Hillside is certainly puppy heaven, lots of attention, many walks, so many new smells and mum and dad close at hand.. It’s wonderful how well they all get on with “Boss” Jess, as usual.

Thank you for the help in getting the tarps up to try and shelter us from the weather, getting the fires lit for dinner. Some were warm others freezing. The dinner as usual was delicious, lots of different dishes and yummy deserts, with not much left over, perfect!

We look forward to hosting next year’s Christmas in July at Hillside.

York Day Run

5th August 2018

Contributors Bruce Carman & Kym Batten

The previous 2 weeks leading up to the York day run the weather in the Perth region was terrible with days of torrential rain, so we were not expecting to have a dry track on the day run. The participants for the trip were -:

Phil & Judy Anderson
Bob & Leslie Armstrong
Kym & Glenda Batten
Bruce & Cherril Carman
Paul & Mirella Di Giorgio
Keith & Marian Granland
Chris Smith
Alan & Daniel Wyatt
Russell Crook
Paul & Debbie Brophy

The day was reasonably good weather mostly sunny but with cloudy patches and a bit chilly, we were lucky as the Saturday before the day was terrible weather.

We met at the Lakes road house on the Great Eastern Highway in the morning and then progressed to West Talbot Road where we deflated the tyres and moved off road through the state forest. The tracks were not too bad considering the bad weather preceding the trip, lots of water filled dips in the track but nothing that caused any trouble.

We continued through State Forest & timber reserve on to Manna Flat for morning tea.

The cakes and biscuits supplied were very welcome and tasty. After morning tea we continued along the tracks through Wandoo National Park, Pony Hill, Mt Talbot, which were much the same as the first part of the trip. Plenty of Kangaroos and Emu's and one kangaroo was keen on hitching a ride with Keith and Marian on their bull bar but missed the opportunity.

From there we went through farming area around South Western York then through Gwanbyine to Greenhills for lunch at the Greenhills Tavern. The hotelier was in a bit of a predicament as his wife was in Perth and left him a bit understaffed to handle the numbers of our 4WDclub and also a tennis club but he was lucky as Keith Granland volunteered to be the barman for our time before lunch and did a sterling job, the lunch was served in a large dining room and was a very good lunch in which most people had the Sunday roast while others selected meals from the menu which were very good as well.

Marian and Keith left us after lunch as they had another commitment to go to.

After lunch we travelled through farming area of South eastern York. Across the Avon at York and then back into Wandoo National Park on the catchment road North to Mt Observation which lived up to its name with some good views of the farming country .

The latter part of this trip was a bit more challenging as some of the tracks had washed away with the torrential rain in the preceding weeks but it did not seem to give anyone too much trouble (a few raised wheels and a bit of mud).

The final part of the day run was to the Nganguring Road which led onto the black top at Yarra Road where re-inflated our tyres for the trip back to perth at around 4pm.

The day was very enjoyable and Bob and Lesley did a terrific job as trip leaders
